

2019 ROUSSANNE

Roussanne is a richly complex white grape indigenous to the Rhône region of France. Here in California, Zaca Mesa Vineyard represents an ideal site, where complex sandy loam soils, high elevation, and breezy afternoons produce one of the most complex and mineral-driven examples in California.

The 2019 Roussanne is a beguiling single varietal wine. On the nose are notes of honeycomb, orange blossom, and a hint of lemon curd. The scent is bright and expressive, yet luxurious at the same time. On the palate are joyful flavors of fresh apricots and honeyed stone fruits. It has a citrus-like acidity brightening up a mid-palate weight that suggests great aging potential. Pair this generous Roussanne with flaky white fish or scallop dishes, or perhaps with a lemon chicken piccata. It is also a great partner for an old-school fondue with fresh bread or roasted potatoes.
